THE BUSINESS OF THE SESSION.

This was a bad beginning for a short session of congress, and from the outlook to-day it seems that very little except the passage of appropriation bills will be accomplished this session. To-day was devoted to fillbustering by

Some southern members, who favor it, have hopes of its passage, but they have in their way a most determined minority opposed to the bill, and the best informed democrats are of the opinion that it will again go over without consideration by the house this session.

out consideration by the house this session.

From appearances at present the only measures of general importance that stand any chance for consideration in the house, besides the appropriation bills, are those proposing the admission of territories as states, and the bill to organize Oklahoma. The bill had considerable opposition and Major Barnes, who is leading the fight against it, thinks there is sufficiently the control of the property o

In Wiping Up the British Troops-The Gov-ernment Comes Very Near to a Defeat-German Gossip LONDON, December 4.- The committee of the house of commons investigating the circumstances of the arrest within the precincts of the house of commons of Mr. Sheehy, M. P., will report that the officer who made the arrest committed a breach of privilege.

In the house of commons this evening, Lord Randolph Churchill moved to adjourn debate in order to discuss the sending of troops to Suakim. He said he believed that the government was going against the advice of high and responsible military authorities. Within a few days a battle would be fought, and probably a desperate one, between British and Egyptian troops and Arab tribes. For what end were a mere handful of British soldiers exposed to the risk of an encounter with the Soudanese?

the presence of 4,000 utterly unreliable Egyptians did not remove the danger. Even if success attended the battle, it would necessitate larger operations in the interior. He implered the house to prevent renewed slaughter in the Sondan, and to save the lives of soldiers who were being nyelessly sacrificed.

Sir William Vernon-Harcourt supported Churchill, saying that the latter's motion was amply justified by the gravity of the situation.

The motion was rejected by a vote of 231 to 189. Mr. O'Brien resuming the Irish debate, made a long and vigorous attack upon Balfour for his treatment of John Mandeville. He accusa long and vigorous attack upon Ballour for his treatment of John Mandeville. He accused Balfour of shooting poisoned arrows at his prisoners, and then indulging in peals of laughter as a requiem over their graves. The government's defense depended mainly upon Mandeville's speech, in which he stated that he was not affected by his imprisonment. Was ever so ungenerouse a use made of a brave man's cheerful description of his treatment? He defied Balfour to face the English people and try to de to death the Parnellites who refused to acknowledge themselves as miscreants. If Balfour was afraid to do this, let him not imagine that such wrongs as Mandeville's could be disposed of by sareasms of the girl of the period stamp. The hour of his condemnation and fall would surely come for his levity and cowardice.

Mr. Balfour, replying, said he failed to understand how a gentleman using such flowers of rhetoric as those employed by O'Brien could accuse others of using coarse and brutal language. He denied that he had described in the state of the treatment of the period stamp. The hour of his condemnation and fall would surely come for his levity and cowardice.

His sense of public duty must be morbidly acute, when it blants the commonplace instincts of country and fair play. The disloyalty of the escapade is only exceeded by its childish conception of military state craft. The Times thinks that there was act of justification for the protest. The prisoner broke up his bed, and with a portion of the slat knocked several of the mob down. Three shots were then fired by members of the party, and Witherell feli to the floor with a shattered shoulder. He was immediately carried without resistance a short distance from jail, and strung up to a telegraph pole, and his body left hanging until daylight this morning. Witherell never said a word after he was wounded, and appeared most indifferent as to his fate. Harry Perdue, another murderer confined in jail, was not molested.

A man named Kellaher testified that by means of threats that they would burn his house and barns, a party of moonlighters succeeded in gaining entrance to his house and assaulted him and his family. Witness was compelled to swear loyalty to the league, and that he would quit the employment of the farmer, who was then under a boycott.

Witness took part in moonlight expeditions of "The Boys," carrying guns and revolvers. Timothy Horan, secretary of branch of the league, paid witness and nine others six shillings each on the occasion of one outrage. Liebkencht's and Singer's recent tervid crations have combined to raise a question in the reichstag as to whether it is opportune to renew the socialist laws. These laws do not expire until September 30, 1800, but as the general election fails earlier, a majority of the members desire to settle the laws on permanent lines before the dissolution. It is expected, therefore, that the second part of the session will be devoted to a measure regulating the laws definitely.

The New Chancellor of the University of Georgia.

Memphis, Tenn., December 4.—[Special.]—Rev. Dr. W. E. Boggs has announced to the representatives of his congregation his acceptance of the chancellorship of the University of Georgia, subject to the action of his presbytery. It is behaved that no obstructions will be interposed by the church, though they will give him up with deep regret. No steps will be taken for a time to sever the pastoral relations, inasmuch as it is his purpose to give the church ample time for filling his place before he leaves them. ing through the roof of the surrounding portions of the building, and doing damage to the ex-Jacksonville Getting Ready for the Return of Her Citizens.

"The accident occurred in this way. For eighty feet from the base the tower is rectangular on the inside, the outside being cylindri-cal, the walls slanting inward. After getting up eighty feet, the clock tower begins. This to be square, or rather was square until it fell. To form a foundation or base for the brickwork of this upper portion, twelve heavy stones, each weighing 1,500 pounds, were placed, three on each of the four corners. The brick work came on top of this, and as the walls contained openings for the faces of the clock, all the weight rested on 'the stones at the corners. These stones were not anchored, and they gave way. The heavy stones crashed through the roof over the superintendent's parlor and one of the dormitories, and did a greet deal of damage. We who were on top were saved by the scantling upon which we were working, catching over the hole on the inside of the tower. As it was, we had a fall of thirty-five feet, from the top of the tower to

"How should the stones have been anchored?"

Washington, December 4.—Three senators, Messrs. Plumb, Berry and Dolph, and Representative Mcitae, to-day introduced bills similar in their provisions, to allow persons who have abandoned or relinquished their homestead entries to make another entry, A similar bill was passed by both houses of congress last year just before the close of the session and failed of becoming a law only for the reason that it did not reach the president in time for his signature before congress adjourned.

The Home Will Not Lose.

It is stated by a gentleman interested that the home will lose nothing by the accident, except, probably by delay. The building committee has held back about $7,000 from the contractors, who will be expected to make good the damages.

The Scheme Falls Through.

New York, December 4.—It is officially announced this morning on Wall street that all negotiations for the settlement of railroad troubles west and southwest of Chicago have been broken off, and the great clearing house pleaded by President Winslow, of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad, is still in existence, but has not yet considered any new plan. The failure of the clearing house scheme was caused by the opposition of President Hughitt, of the Northwest road.

Ward 3-J. Dannenberg, W. R. Cox, S. H. Smith. Ward 4-H. C. Tindall, Henry Horne, James R. Boone. Mayor-S. B. Price. The only one of Monday night's ticket who was nominated today is Mr. R. H. Smith. The campaign has only three days in which to be weeked but matters will be very lively during that orked, but matters will be very lively during that rt time. Registration will close Thursday night at ten o'clock. There are only about seven hundred persons registered, but registration will now be very brisk until the close of the books. The better class of negroes will support the ticket nominated yesterday in preference to that of Monday night. Such leading negroes as P. O. Holt, Frank Discoon, George Wallace, and others, were at the meeting and pledged their earnest efforts to the election of the ticket. Major Hanson introduced a resolution to the effect that in view of differences which exist among the propie of Macon upon the question of prohibition, that the meeting agree and pledge the ticket nominated, to maintain the present status upon the liquor question, as now existing in Macon, Douglass, who is an older and larger man than Malone, has had a habit of quarreling with Malone, and would frequently strike him in the face. Yesterday morning he struck Malone in the face several times, and Ma-Ione drew a knife and gave Douglas a fear-ful cut across the abdomen and through the gaping wound the entrails protruded. Dr. Walker rendered the necessary medical attention. It was at first thought that Douglass would die, but his condition is said to be improved yesterday afterneon. Malone fied immediately after the cutting and has not yet been caught.

Morgan, of Canada, the champion long distance rider of the country, and the prizes and purses are attracting cyclists from all points. There will be both pro-fessional and amateur contests, and entries are being booked rapidly. Homer Reed, of Atlanta, is entered in the amateur races, but will meet sturdy contestants from Augusta, Macon, Savannah, Columbus, Greenville, Fort Valley Charlotte and other cities. Morgan, Polhill, Boyst and Maxwell make up a great professional quartette, and are already entered. It will be the greatest bicycle tournament ever in Georgia, and other Atlanta wheelmen will probably enter. Morgan and Boyst will enter races against fast trotting horses, and the horses will have to go well down in the thirties to leave the wheels.

Dunwoody. This community has quite a sense tion in the sudden disappearance of W. R. Wilson and Mrs. Angeline Adams, widow of J. C. Adams, who was a brother-in-law of Wilson. He, Wilson, leaves a wife and four children in moderate circumstances, while Mrs. Adams leaves three children with her old mother, with nothing visible to subsist upon. It is thought that a money consideration is the cause of the clopement, and not altogether a love affair, as it has been said that at the winding up of Adams' estate, a shortage of three or four thousand dollars in each was missing. The estate was considerably in debt, with but little to settle the claims against it comeatable, and persons that claim to know, say that there was quite a pile left. A MYSTERIOUS TRAGEDY NEAR BIR-MINGHAM.

The Body of a Young Girl Found Floating in the Water-A Strange Find in Tennessee North Carolina Notes.

Giles County, Tenn. AA sensational and ghastly discovery is reported. While Mr. P. T. Cole was walking along the bank of Richland creek, he found two sacks containing the dismembered remains of a full-grown negro man. Mr. Cole came to own and reported the matter to Coroner J. J. Mc Collum, who at once empanneled a jury and went to where the body was found, and viewed the remains. The legs had been cut off at the trunk of the body, and were put into a sack and weighte with a thirty pound stone. The body and arms were in another sack close by, weighted in the same manner, but the head could not be discovered. Both sacks were strongly tied with a small rope and a large butcher knife was found in one of the sacks. The coroner's jury have not yet returned a verdict, as they are trying to find the head. There was a leather strep fied around the wrist.

Jack Dickson disappeared four weeks ago from the isgah neighborhood, and Larkin Lancaster having made threats, was suspected. There was no proof, however. What was thought to be Dickson's body was found almost devoured by buzzards, but it was afterwards ascertained not to be his body. Yesterday, however, some strong cir-cumstantial evidence was heard. The butcher knife with which the body was severel was in the sack, and has been identified. The story is that Dickson was shot in the head, and this was concealed, not being sunk with the body for fear of identification. There is much excitement over the terrible find. Dickson's mother identified the shirt and the leather band around the wrist, and another negro the knife as belonging to Lancaster. Deputy Sheriff Marks and Constable Butler arrested Lancaster. He was found picking cotton and made no resistence. This is his eleventh nearscration. He denies that he is guilty though body was found, it would be in Richland creek, car Columbia, S. C .- The governor has commuted to ten years imprisonment the death sentence of Marth A Beckham, who was to be hauged in York-ville on Friday for having her husband, George Beckham, murdered. Beckham had been serving a term in the penitentiary-for manslaughter, and in his absence Dolph Wheeler lived with his wife. Beckham was pardoned this summer and returned home. He had frequent quarrels with his wife One day she said she would have him killed. That night he was shot in his own house by Dolph Wheeler. Martha Beckham and Wheeler were con-victed and sentenced to be hanged. There was some doubt as to Martha's guilt. As no woman has ever been harged in South Carolina, there is a prejudice against capital punishment of women. Wheeler will be executed on Friday.

Yesterday afternoon three persons paid their admission fee to the penifentiary, and looked around the interior of that institution. It was noticed that two of them had not the figures of men, and they were subsequently arrested and taken to the guard house, where an investigation showed ole was a man and two were women in men's clothing. One woman was white, the other half white and half Indian. They were laborer's clothes. The police have been unable to get anything out of them. The women are under twenty years old, and very bright. The man claims not to have known the sex of his companions. Both girls say they were left orphans, and have been seeking their fortune, and working as railroad hands. They will be held or investigation.

Raleigh, N. C .- Governor Scales has issued a pronation proclaiming the result of the vote on the numeric to the constitution increasing the numper of justices of the supreme court from three to ive. The amendment was adopted by nearly a Ellis appealed to the supreme court, which confirmed the sentence of the lower court, which had convicted her. Night before last the store of A. J. Jones, in Dur-nan county, was entered by two burglars. Jones was absent at the time the burglars entered the tore, but returned in a few minutes. As he reached he store he was shot at twice by burglars. The shot and slugs tore Jones's clothing. this man, but wounded him only slightly. The other burglar sprang from the window and Jones fired at him. The burglar fell, evidently wounded, but got up and escaped in the darkness. The thieves carried away quite a sum of money, and a lot of valuables packed up ready for removal. A posse is in search of the burglars.

Birmingham, Ala .- At East Lake, a residence suburb six miles from the city, yesterday, the body of a beautiful and handsomely dressed young girl was found floating in the lake. There were no showed that death was caused by drowning. The coroner's inquest is still in probody has not been identified. Several parties have testified that they saw the girl walking along the bank of the lake last Sunday moraing, and as the body is much swollen, it is believed she was drowned on that day. Hundreds of people have viewed the body but none of them have been able to identify it and but none of them have been able to identify it, and no one answering the description of the dead gir. was ever seen in the neighborhood, except on Su day, when the drowning is supesed to have occurred.

The girl is apparently twelve or fourteen years old, very handsome and well dressed. No young girl has been reported missing, and the affair is a mystery.

The inquest was concluded tonight and no clew to the girl's identity has been discovered. A physician who examined the body says the girl was outraged. The affair is the most sensational mystery ever known in this section, and thousands of people rom this city went out to see the body. The coroner will defer the burial as long as possible in hope of discovering the identity of the dead girl,

GENERAL GREELY, OF ARCTIC FAME, A DELEGATE. Delegates Arriving From All Over the

Country-An Interesting Programme and a Special Invitation to the Ladies. In accordance with the request in yesterday's Constitution for a meeting of citizens who are to aid the southern forestry congress in entertaining the American association, was held at the Kimball yesterday. Among those present were Major Livingstone Mims, Captain Harry Jackson, General Lewis, Dr. Schumann, Mr. Oglesby, and Major Fitten. fter consultation, it was decided that the gentlemen of the committees as named yester, day would meet in parlor 104 of the Kimball house this morning at 9 o'clock. The programme for today, as given by Hon. C. R. Pringle, president of the American forestry congress, is as follows:

The southern forestry congress will be The southern forestry congress will be called to order by its president in the senate chamber at 3 p. m., when prayer will be offered by the Rev. A. G. Thomas. After considering the report of Mr. Sidney Root, the secretary, it is expected that resolutions will be offered and acted upon looking to the merging of the southern branch into the American cougress. The main body will meet at 3 p. m., in the hall of the house of representatives, presided over by the Hon. C. R. Pringle, its president. Prayer will be offered by Rev. Virgil Norcross and after reports from the officers the proposition to consolidate the two organizations will be acted upon and decided. At 7:30 p. m., the consolidated body will as semble in the hall of the house, presided over by Colonel Pringle. Prayer will be offered by

Rev. Dr. H. H. Tucker, after which address of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Cooper. and his excellency. Governor Gordon. The audience will be entertained with music. The president of the American forestry congress, Colonel Pringle, will respond to the addresses of welcome and deliver the annual address. After this a poem composed by M. M. Fol-som will be read by Mrs. Lollie Belle Wylie, This will be followed by music, announce ments for further proceedings, benediction and adjournment. The public, and especially the ladies, are invited to attend the sessions as the proceedings will be highly interesting. A full programme for Thursday will be published in tomorrow morning's Constitution. The congress, after Wednesday, will meet in the large hall of the Y. M. C. A. The following telegram was received her

yesterday:
"Washington, D.C.—The Secretary of war has detailed General Greels to attend the fore try congress I will be present with you. B. E. Fernow."

A Tree Flanting.
An interesting programme has been arranged by the teachers and pupils of the Girl's High school for the entertainment of the Forestry congress.

Gir's High school for the entertainment of the Forestry congress.

The most interesting feature will be the "tree planting." After their calisthenic exercises the young ladies will plant seven young trees in the lot between the two high school buildings, each young lady in turn helping to shovel the earth about the trees. Some short speeches will be made by the visiting forestry delegates, and the exercises promise to be highly interesting.

LOOKING FOR A SITE To Establish a New Patent Medicine Plant.

Dr. H. B. Ewbank, who represents the Topaz remedies, and is president of the company, the headquarters of which has up to this time, been at Sparianburg, S. C., is in Atlanta looking around with a view to moving his plant to this place. The Topaz remedies consist of four different medicines as follows: Ewbank's "Topaz" Cincona Cordial, Kwbank's "Topaz" Liver Pills, Ewbank's "Topaz". Hower Pills and Ewbank's "Topaz" Cincona Cordial, Kwbank's "Topaz" Liver Pills, Ewbank's "Topaz". Hower Pills and Ewbank's "Topaz" Cincona Cordial, Kwbank's "Topaz" Liver Pills, Ewbank's "Topaz". Hower states as follows: Ewbank's "Topaz" Cincona Cordial, Kwbank's "Topaz" Liver Pills, Ewbank's "Topaz". Blood Pills and Ewbank's "Topaz". Blood Pills and Ewbank's "Topaz" Ciniment.

These remedies have been advertised largely in all the south Atlanta et al. However a such as in the western states. They are well known and are growing in favor all the time. The demand has fincreased to such an extent that Mr. Ewbanks has been forced to look for a better distributing point than Spartanburg, and to greatly enlarge the plant as the present capacity of the factory will not supply the demand. It is his purpose to form a stock company in Atlanta and remove his factory to this place and increase the capacity sufficiently to meet the demands of the trade.

The catabilishment of such a factory here would be of immense benefit to Atlanta. It is a fact, not generally known that there is not a laboratory between Baltimore and Mexico, south of St. Louis, for the exclusively manufacturers in the south devote their entire time and attention to the preparation of one remedy, such as S. S. S., B. B. B., etc.

The Tutt menufacturing company, of New York, and Myers & Co., of Baltimore, have been very successful in handling a large line of proprietary medicines, and they do not by sny means cover the south and west.

The "Topaz" remedies have the advantage of being well advertised and favorably known, and the stock c To Establish a New Patent Medicine Plant.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

ASPINWALL, U. S., Columbia, South America, October 4th, 1877. To the Topaz Cinenona Cordial Company, Spartanburg, S. C. U. S. A.—Gentlemen; Helt New Orleans, La., for this port in July last. Knowing that I was going to a very sickly piace; I purchased a case of your Cordial. I used it on the passage here and have used it freely since I have been in this port. I have a crew of eighteen men and I am the only one en board ship but what has been down sick with the fever (Chagres) of this country. When I leave here I shall leave a number of my crew—some dead, some in the hospital dying. I have been in all climates and many parts of this little world, but never dropped auchor in Buch a deathly port before—people dying in all directions. I have now been in this port live weeks, and I must say I never enjoyed better health in my life. Shall we not say it was the "Topax" Cordial! I have taken it three times a day while here, and as I am the only one out of the eighteen that has secaped the fever, and the only one that has used the "Topax" Cordial; I cannot but believe that the Cordial has had something to do with it. At any rate, my faith its so strong that I would not think of going to any country where there was much fever Without taking some of the "Topax" Cordial to all with me.

I cheerfully recommend it to all ship captains FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

You certainly deserve, I am, yours most fruly,

Captain of the Saip River ide.

The Topaz company has received an applicative from one of the largest exporting houses in Ne York, for the sole agency of exporting their remedies to Africa, Australia and other foreign countrie.

Mr. Ewbanks says he last not yet accepted the offer, as he preters first to supply the demand in the United States, and will have to increase his plat largely to do that. Mr. Ewbanks saidon yesterly, "Any one of the four proprietary medicines I no manufacture could be made a business in itself, but the four, when owned togethe are a four-horse team, and cannot keep fro proving a time one of the most profitable investments that has ever been made.

The southern forestry congress will be The southern lorestry congress will be called to order by its president in the senate chamber at 3 p. m., when prayer will be offered by the Rev. A. G. Thomas. After considering the report of Mr. Sidney Root, the secretary, it is expected that resolutions will be offered and acted upon looking to the merging of the southern branch into the American congress. The main body will meet at 3 p. m., in the hall of the house of representatives, presided over by the Hon. C. R. Pringle, its president. Prayer will be offered by Rev. Virgil Norcross and after reports from the officers the proposition to consolidate the two organizations will be acted upon and decided.

At 7:30 p. m., the consolidated body will as semble in the hall of the house, presided over by Colonel Pringle. Prayer will be offered by Rev. Dr. H. H. Tucker, after which addresses of welcome will be delivered by Mayor Cooper, and his excellency, Governor Gordon. audience will be entertained with music. The president of the American forestry congress, Colonel Pringle, will respond to the addresses of welcome and deliver the annual address.

After this a poem composed by M. M. Folsom will be read by Mrs. Lollie Belle Wylie. This will be followed by music, announcements for further proceedings, benediction and adjournment. The public, and especially the ladies, are invited to attend the sessions as the proceedings will be highly interesting.

A full programme for Thursday will be published in tomorrow morning's Constitution. The congress, after Wednesday, will meet in the large hall of the Y. M. C. A. The following telegram was received here yesterday:

"Washington, D.C.—The Secretary of war has de-"MASHINGTON, D.C.—210 Secretary of war has de-tailed General Greet to attend the fore ty congres; I will be present with you. B. E. FERNOW."

A Tree Planting.

An interesting programme has been ar-ranged by the teachers and pupils of the Girl's High school for the entertainment of the Forestry congress.

The most interesting feature will be the "tree planting." After their calisthenic exrecises the young ladies will plant seven young trees in the lot between the two high school buildings, each young lady in turn helping to shovel the earth about the trees. Some short speeches will be made by the visiting forestry delegates and the exercises results.

egates, and the exercises promise to be highly interesting. Sick headache is readily cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones and regulates the digestion, and creates an appetite. LOOKING FOR A SITE

To Establish a New Patent Medicine Plant. Dr. H. B. Ewbank, who represents the Topaz remedies, and is president of the company, the headquarters of which has up to this time, been at Spartanburg, S. C., is in Atlanta looking around with a view to moving his plant to this place. The Topaz remedies consist of four different medicines as follows: Ewbank's "Topaz" Cimeona Cordial, Ewbank's "Topaz" Liver Pills, Ewbank's "Topaz" Blood Pills and Ewbank's "Topaz" Ointment.

These remedies have been advertised largely in all the south Atlantic *t.tc*s, as well as in the western states. They are well known and are growing in favor all the time. The demand has increased to such an extent that Mr. Ewbanks has been forced to look for a better distributing point than Spartanburg, and to greatly chlarge the plant as the present capacity of the factory will not supply the demand. It is his purpose to form a stock company in Atlanta and remove his factory to this place and increase the capacity sufficiently to meet the demands of the trade.

The establishment of such a factory here would be of immense benefit to Atlanta. It is a fact, not generally known that there is not a laboratory between Baltimore and Mexico, south of St. Louis, for the exclusive; manufactures in the south devote their entire time and attention to the preparation of one remedy, such as S. S., B. B. B., etc.

The Tutt manufacturing company, of New York, and Myers & Co., of Baltimore, have been very successful in handling a large line of proprietary medicines, and they do not by any means cover the south and west.

The "Topaz" remedies have the advantage Dr. H. B. Ewbank, who represents the Topaz remedies, and is president of the company, the cessful in handling a large line of proprietary medicines, and they do not by any means cover the south and west.

The "Topaz" remedies have the advantage of being well advertised and favorably known, and the stock company in Atlanta will get the advantage of all the advertising that the "Topaz" medicines have received up to now.

Atlanta is known to be the largest patent medicine center in the south, and this is another reason why she should endeavor to develop this particular line of manufacture in which she is lacking. At present the "Topaz" company get all their bottles from Pitisburg and Baltimore. If the factory were placed here, they would get every bottle used from Atlanta's glass works.

The "Topaz" Chichona cordial is the best tonic that has ever been offered to the people of the United States. It is made from the wine of the Spanish grape. The company manufacture their own wine from imported graues, and from this wine the cordial is made. It is strengthening, health giving and delightful to the taste. It is a splendid prevention and cure for malaris, cleansing thoroughly the blood and greatly adding digestion.

TESTIMONY FROM THON. JEPF DAVIS.

BEAUVOIE, MISS, 5th July, 1887. Dear Sir. Yours of the 24th ult has been received. We have tried your Topaz Clinchona Cordial Tonic and found it beneficial, and the most agreeable form of quinine. Sincerely thanking you for your kind attention and the opportunity you have given us to test your valuable medicine, I am.

FROM SOUSH AMERICA.

Respectfully and truly,

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

ASPINWALL, U.S., Columbia, South America, October 4th, 187. To the Topaz Cinchona Cordial Company, Spartanburg, S. C., U.S. A.—Gentlemen; Heft New Orleans, La., for this port in July last, Knowing that I was going to a very sickly piace, I purchased a case of your Cordial, I used it on the passage here and have used if freely since I have been in this port. I have a crew of eighteen men and I am the only one on board ship but what has been down sick with the fever (Chagres) of this country. When I leave here is shall leave a number of my crew—some dead, some in the hospital dying. I have been in all climates and many parts of this little world, but never dropped anchor in much a deathly port before—people dying in all directions. I have now been in this port five weeks, and I must say I never enjoyed better health in my life. Shall we not say it was the "Topaz" Cordial? I have taken it three times a day while here, and as I am the only one out of the eighteen that has escaped the fever, and the only one that has used the "Topaz" Cordial, I cannot but believe that the Cordial has had something to do with It. At any rate, my faith is so strong that I would not think of going to any country where there was much fever without taking some of the "Topaz" Cinchona Cordial with me.

I cheerfully recommend it to all ship captains going to any country where there was much sever without sating some of the "Topas" Cinchona Cordial with me.

I cheerfully recommend it to all ship captains and all travelers, and anyone living where there is much malaria. And wishing you every success, as you certainly deserve, I am, yours most truly,

Wm. B. Hallett.

Captain of the ship River ide.

The lopas company has received an application from one of the largest experting houses in Nev York, for the sole agency of exporting their remedies to Africa, Australia and other foreign countries.

Mr. Ewbanks says he has not yet accepted their office, as he prefers first to supply the demand in the United States, and will have to increase his plant largely to do that. Mr. Ewbanks says did on yesterday, "Any one of the four proprietary medicines I now manufacture could be made a business of in itself, but the four, when owned together, are a four-horse team, and cannot keep from proving in time one of the most profitable investments that has ever been made.

A significant point in favor of Ewbank's Cinchona cordist is the indorsements given it by the principal physicians of New Orleans, which no other remedy, north, east, south or west, choys.

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY For the Weak and Debilitated Indorsed by all Physicians throughout the Civilized World. PROF. PIETRA SANTA, OF PARIS,

PROF. PIETRA SANTA, OF PARIS, the world renowned specialist on pulmonary diseases, in his work published in Paris, speaks of the Johan Hoff's Malt Extract as follows:
"I can highly recommended this pleasant remedy in restoring weakened digestion. As a large number of patients lack the necessary power to digest solid food, and would, through the use of stimulants, be merely excited and weakened, therefore I regard to fimmense value to the Practitioner to bring to his aid a pleasant remedy like the GENUINE JOHANN HOFF'S MALT EXTRACT, which will act not only as a tonic but as a nutritive as well, and which is less exciting than wine as a stimulant.

ATLANTA, GA., DECEMBER 5, 1888.

Today's City Election. We trust that every citizen of Atlanta who reads this article will determine to cast his vote today. Those elections are most important, the results of which touch us most closely, and at most points. Our city government is of more importance to the people of Atlanta than the state government-and that in turn of more importance than the national government. The city government touches every citizen, and touches us at every point. It absorbs most of our taxes, and in return gives us most of our privileges and protec-

Two tickets are offered today. One is a ticket representing prohibitionists and antiprohibitionists fused in a conservative movement. The other represents no organization, and is simply the ambition of selfelected candidates. The leaders of prohibition and anti-prohibition stand shoulder to shoulder in the support of the conservative Even the committee of seventy-five, organized to oppose the conservative ticket, after deliberate survey, withdrew its ticket, disbanded its committee, and its leaders are now active supporters of the conservative

Besides representing the conservative elements of Atlanta, and being the outcome of a movement that looks toward peace and union, the conservative ticket deserves support on another ground. It has been op posed by a campaign of bitterness and of violent speech and sentiment that should not be permitted to dominate city affairs. There has been a persistent attempt to array class against class, to commit our people to division and irritation, compared to which the trouble over prohibition would be mild. If this intolerant spirit of demagogry prevails in today's election, it will encourage such movements in future and make such sentiments as have been openly uttered and applauded against the conservative ticket the winning sentiment in Atlanta. This we cannot afford to have.

Go out today early. Cast your vote for the conservative ticket. See that your friends vote and urge them to vote with you. No Atlantian can do better work today, no matter how high or humble he may be, than in giving a few hours to bringing out a full vote for the conservative ticket, and increasing the majority by which we believe it will

JOHN MONEYWAKER, of Philadelphia, has probably had more fun than he bar-

An Optimist and a Pessimist.

On Thanksgiving Day in New York two preachers in their sermons expressed very different opinions.

The Rev. Dr. Paxton, Presbyterian, spoke thankfully of our present blessings, and hopefully of the future. He said that he had not lost his faith in his fellow men. He believed that the world was full of good men and women; that honesty was the rule and dishonesty, the exception; that people were growing more worthy of freedom; that marriage was not a failure; that labor and capi tal were not enemies, and that society was not rotten, but was growing better.

On the other hand, the Rev. Mr. Adams, Episcopalian, talked in a gloomy strain. It seemed to him that our institutions and th s'andard of our manhood were deteriorat ing; that corrupt intrigue had taken the place of politics; that babble had supplanted oratory; that pallor had driven out high color in books; that smatterers strutted as scholars, that chivalry had departed, and that wealth was held superior to truth and

It may be said that Dr. Paxton is an optimist and that Mr. Adams is a pessimist. The one may take too rose-colored a view of things, while the latter goes to the other

Of the two; give us the optimist. He im parts the inspiration of his hopeful spirit to others, and urges them onward and upward. But the other, the pessimist, gives neither hope nor encouragement. He would have men believe after nearly nineteen centuries of Christianity that they are nearer failure, destruction and hell than their ancestors

Mr. Adams talks like a disappointed dyspeptie; Dr. Paxton speaks out like a man with an active brain and a healthy body. An optimist is generally a healthy man; a pessimist is almost always a sick

WHAT is the matter with the republican victory? The expert observers say that business is not as good as it has been.

The Road to Ruin.

It is the opinion of THE CONSTITUTION that some of the people of Atlanta are not paying as much attention to their boys as the scriptural injunctions justify.

Every day in the week, and on nearly every street in the city, there can be found young boys loafing and idling, smoking cigarettes and, in some cases, drinking whisky. The police records tell a very dismal story with respect to these idle boys, and every mark that is made on these records ought to be a warning to parents that it is the first step to the penitentiary or to the gallows.

Matters are even worse at night. The boys who roam the streets at night do not indulge in innocent mischief. They are more highly educated in crime than that, They organize wild-cat clubs, and proceed to commit depredations on the property of citizens. After awhile the wild-cat clubs will grow into whyo gangs, such as have been the pest of New York city, and then the whyo gangs will be led gently into the penitentiary. Quite recently an Italian was attacked and killed by these boys. No doubt the killing was unintentional, but the attack on the man seems to have been premeditated. Even the killing of the Italian did not sat-

nunity if they could only be taken in hand.

Primarily, the boys are not responsible for the education in frime, drunkenness lanta who permit their sons to tramp the streets at night do not understand and appreciate the fact that they are morally responsible for the disgrace and ruin that is bound to follow. There is nothing more certain than the fact that the boys who are permitted to roam the streets at night are bound to become moral wrecks and criminals; but if there is anything more certain, it is the fact that their parents are responsible for their ruin. It will be an easy matter to reform the boys if the parents reform themselves so far as to take control of their sons.

COLONEL BILL DUDLEY'S return to his Indiana home has been indefinitely postponed on account of the weather.

Mr. Randall's Views. Some of our esteemed contemporaries, who are more enthusiastic in behalf of the politicians than they are in behalf of the people, have made it a point during the past year or so to allude to Mr. Randall as a traitor, or something of that kind, and to abuse him roundly whenever his name was

These esteemed contemporaries are to be excused on the ground that they were merely echoing the views of the politicians, who, until lately, have been recognized as the democratic bosses. They have joined in making an undignified and a slanderous onslaught on Mr. Randall merely because they thought it the proper thing to do. As for Mr. Randall himself, he has paid no attention to these things. A democrat of democrats, he has pursued the even tenor of his way, doing all that he could do to bring about democratic victory. One of his closest friends says that the great commoner of Pennsylvania regrets most profoundly the defeat of Mr. Cleveland, and adds that the president has not a more ardent admirer in the country.

The same authority says that Mr. Randall hinks that Mr. Cleveland is too much of a statesman and not enough of a politician, and that he made an error in following the advice of inexperienced leaders. He is also of the opinion that the democratic party would be in a better shape for insisting on tariff reform if it had held on to what it had and postponed the tariff issue until it was in a position to carry out its ideas in regard to reform and revision.

With respect to the admission of new states, Mr. Randall says that the democrats will resist the republican efforts unless Dakota comes in undivided and Utah is taken in. He says that if the republicans attempt to dispose of the surplus by making extravagant appropriations, the people will call them to account. He pays no attention to the republican threat to interfere with elections in the south, because he believes that elections are as honestly conducted here as hey are at the north.

Mr. Randall hopes that the democratic party will be successful in 1892, and that the party ought to be harmonized so as to present a solid front. To this work of harmony he pledges himself and his influence.

It is said that Private Secretary 'Lije Halford plays beautifully on the flute. insures a pleasant time at the white house during the heated term.

Copyright in Great Britain.

The official report of the copyright case which rose out of the unauthorized dramatization of Mrs. Burnett's "Little Lord Fauntleroy," has recently een published (Warne & Co. vs. Seebohm, Law Reports, 39 Chancery division, pp. 73-83). This suit Mrs. Burnett published her work in the St. Nich-olas, and arranged with Warne & Co. for its simul-aneous reproduction in England, where the British copyright was registered by the plaintiffs. Norther in the arguments of counsel nor in the opinion of the judge is it mentioned that the author is not a subject of Great Britain, nor is any notice taken of the fact that she was not at any time during the ublication of her book, within the territory of the united kingdom. This is of importance to American authors, as going to show that simultaneous or first publication in Great Britain, together with registration there, will of themselves enable the nut maintain suit in defence of the copyright; and that the expense of a journey to Canada or other British territory at the time of publication may be omitted without jeopardizing the protection given by the

The fact to which the Evening Post calls attention has long been taken advantage of by several American authors, who probably owe their knowledge of the matter to the investigations of Mark Twain and James R. Osgood. The books of Mr. Howells, Mr. Cable, Frank R. Stockton and other American authors are published in Great Britain simultaneously with their appearance in this country, thus securing British copyright. Recently a southern writer issued a book of short stories that had been printed first in the Century and Scribner's. On its appearance here, it was pirated in England and issued in a cheap form. The book was no sooner issued there than the pirates were confronted with the fact that it had been copyrighted under the English law, and they were compelled to do what may be termed the "'andsome thing." It is doubtful if they have yet recovered from their surprise. But while all this is true, it still remains a fact (to the disgrace of the American congress and the American people) that the English author cannot secure copyright in this country. There is still an opportunity for congress to call up the pending copyright bill and make it a law.

If there is to be a roundup, how would it do to send Editor Halstead to England and get Whitelaw Ried to edit the Commercial-Gazette for a brief season?

The House and Technological School. The house of representatives will consider today the bill reported by the appropriations committee, of which Dr. Felton, during the sickness of Chairman Gordon, has been the able and conspicuous head.

The fifth section of that bill provides $18,000 for the support of the technological school, and $7,000 for the support of the isfy the boys, for they afterwards attacked four branch colleges. We earnestly trust a drug store, and informed the proprietor | that the legislature will adopt this much of that they would serve him as Christophine the report without change and without opposition. The technological school is the most hopeful educational experiment made among the boys who roam the streets at in Georgia in the past fifty years. It means crooks, thleves, drunkards and murderers, its support, through the increased populawould make valuable members of the com- tion and the improved tax values that will result from the educated artisans sent out from its walls. The work of the branch colleges is exceland licentiousness that they are nightly re- lent. They have been blessings to the ceiving. The responsibility is on their par- sections of the state in which they are loents, and it is a heavy one indeed. It is a cated, and the state cannot do better than pity that all the fathers and mothers in At- to extend her hand to them and urge them to wider usefulness. It will be a great day for Georgia when the house passes these appropriations by a ringing and decisive

Genuine Humorists.

"Bill" Nye and James Whitcomb Riley have every reason to be proud of the reception they received last night, and all who saw and heard them have every reason to be grateful to the famous humorists for an evening of most exquisite pleasure.

Nye and Riley simply captivated the finest audience which could be gathered together in Atlanta. The culture of the city was there, and everybody in the audience was carried away by the delightful humor of both. It was an event to be remembered. The Forestry Congress resentatives are here and are enroute who have made this subject a study. Among those from abroad now here is an officer of the imperial government of Russia.

THE MANHOOD OF CHRIST.

bers of the Y. M. C. A.

A large and appreciative audience greeted
Dr. Armstrong at the Y. M. C. A. hall last evening.
He introduced his subject, "The Manhood of Christ" in an exceedingly unique manner, captivating his listeners from the outset.

"There is a strong necessity for the assertion, for the emphasizing of the manhood of Jesus, he said in the course of his address, "and this necessity has in the course of his address, "and this necessity has arisen from an overlooking of the fact that there was a manhood of Jesus.

"In my opinion we have been so schooled as to so magnify what we call the deity as to overlook largely if not wholly his manhood. We come to the study of the manhood of Jesus as we come to that of the manhood of any other man. Two great questions meet us on the very threshold. Whence came that person, and we go back to the parents. I believe that it is generally recorded that boys take after their mothers and girls after their fathers. All wisdow in this—for if boys took after fathers. All wisdow in this—for if boys took after fathers and girls after their mothers all hardness would be one side and all softness on the other. To keep up an excellent balance, boys take after mothers and girls after tathers. The other question is, what were his environments and other molding forces of his character. It is impossible to understand this great character without understand in the takes in which he lives.

molding forces of his character. It is impossible to understand this great character without understanding the ages in which he lived. We must know what moral and religious forces played about him before ne was born—what rise to a climax after his birth. * * I must say there is a gross popular mistake in regard to that intellectual, moral and religious character of His age."

The doctor spoke o' its profound learning, of its great antagonistic schools, showing conclusively the mistaken ideas of the intellectual attainments. As the doctor proceeded, taking up the character of Jesus, His deep spirituality, and His striking originality, he carried his hearers with him, and held their undivided attention to the close.

"The compliment paid Augusta's National Exposition by the manager of John A. Stevens in putting on 'Mask of Life in Augusta during the progress of our great enterprise, will be appreciated here. 'Mask of Life' is a romantic drama, the scene laid in Russia amid intrigue and excitement, and depicts in the four admirably planned acts, love, jealousy, anger and revenge in all their intensity, and retribution and reconciliation in the most struking manner. Each character requires an artist, and Mr. Stevens has gathered about him an array of taleut that is seldom seen on an American stage. Mr. Stevens, in 'Mask of Life,' has made for himself a character in the leading role that gives him the opportunity of displaying taleut that elevates him still higher in his profession and adds to his international reputation. And the election is on today. Will it be Glenn or Brown?

That is the question which will be definitely answered when the votes shall be counted to night.

Most probably Glenn and the entire conservative ticket. That seems to be the almost universal impression, anyhow.

Still a great many people think Brown . But all are agreed upon one point—that it will be a hotly contested election, and that the ticket which wins will have to get in some shrewd and powerful work at the polls today. The Ward Question.

There is nothing in the ward question. If the third ward wanted an alderman, why did they not offer some such man as L. P. Grant, D. A. Beatie, Z. H. Smith or George S. Thomas—some man capable of filling the office?

Or why did not the fourth ward propose W. A. Osborn. J. C. Hendrix, W. S. Thomson, H. C. Erwin, J. B. Redwine, Thomas Peters, C. Z. Blalock, or some other man who would have been generally acceptable?
The very purpose of having an aldermante board at all is that the general interests of the city may not be overridden by over zealous representatives of the wards who desire to put through jobs, small or large, for local improvements not always of public importance.
A man like Dr. Hutchison would be elected alderman just as readily if he lived in one ward as another. It is the man the people want and not where he lives.

It is a burning question, one in which the people of the whole country, but particularly those of the south are deeply interested. It is a question upon which the Georgia legislature will soon be put on record.

The question came up before the house con mittee on state of the republic yesterday, the question being on the reconsideration of the action of the committee last week in deciding to report adversely a resolution by Mr. Allred of Pickens, requesting our representatives in congress to use their utmost endeavors to have the internal revenue laws repealed.

There was a pretty full attendance, and Hou.

Morgan Rawls, chairman, presided. After ascertaining that a quorum was present, the chairman stated that the commit tee had been called together to reconsider its action in agreeing to report adversely a resolu tion asking our representatives in congress to use their endeavors to have the internal revenue laws repealed. He stated that at a recent meeting of the committee, six member had voted in favor of an adverse re port, and four for a favorable report. He had seen all of the absent members from that meeting, and every one had assured him that they favored the resolutiod asking our repre sentatives to endeavor to have the intern revenue laws repealed. He hoped that the resolution would be reconsidered so that there could be a free discussion. Mr. Peacock moved to reconsider the action of the committee, and stated that he was not present at the last meeting, having been called home by sickness in his family.

The republican party had also declared at its national convention last summer in favor of the repeal and both parties ought to be ashamed of themselves for not repealing the law before now. He thought the law unconstitutional because the constitution of the United States said that no man should be deprived of his life, liberty or property without due process of law.

"I want to see the time come," said Mr. Allred, "when the ninety thousand men who are prowling over the country arresting hon est and respectable people and shooting them down, will be made to go to work like other people. I tell you, gentlemen, it is a bad state of affairs when men are not allowed to dispose of their own property as they see fit."

Mr. Snelson opposed a reconsideration in a very extensive speech. He said "free whisky" would ruin this country, and would absolutely property as the same that incompressions.

The Internal Revenue Question Before a House Committee—The Fight Will Soon Be Made Before the House. The internal revenue question continues to born.

It is a burning question, one in which the people of the whole country, but particularly people of the whole country, but particularly those of the south are deeply interested. It is a question upon which the Georgia legis-lature will soon be put on record. The question came up before the house committee on state of the republic yesterday, the question being on the reconsideration of the action of the committee last week in deciding to report adversely a resolution by Mr. Allred, of Pickens, requesting our representatives in congress to use their utmost endeavors to have the internal revenue laws repealed.

There was a pretty full attendance, and Hon. Mergan Rawls, chairman, presided. After ascertaining that a quorum was present, the chairman stated that the committee had been called together to reconsider its action in agreeing to report adversely a resolu-tion asking our representatives in congress to use their endeavors to have the internal revenue laws repealed. He stated that at a recent meeting of the committee, six members had voted in favor of an adverse repert, and four for a favorable report. He had seen all of the absent members from that meeting, and every one had assured him that they favored the resolutiod asking our repre-

The republican party had also declared at its national convention last summer in favor of the repeal and both parties ought to be ashamed of themselves for not repealing the law before now. He thought the law unconstitutional because the constitution of the United States said that no man should be deprived of his life, liberty or property without due process of law.

"I want to see the time come," said Mr. Allred, "when the ninety thousand men who are prowling over the country arresting honest and respectable people and shooting them down, will be made to go to work like other people. Stocks as Reported at the New York Stock NEW YORK, December 4.—The stock market was generally higher throughout the day than last evening, but Missouri Pacific and Atchison were very weak spots and checked the natural disposition of the market to advance, and tonight the list is irregularly changed, with but few important movements for the day. The inclination to sell stocks upon uncertainty of the situation in the Southwes upon uncertainty of the situation in the Southwest was less pronounced this morning, and the desire to cover was shown, which, coupled by very marked buying for foreign account, gave the general list firm to strong tone, which carried it above last evening's figures, and kept it there for the remainder of the day. The weak spots, however were Missouri Pacific and Atchison, and they both broke badly at the opening and again toward the broke badly at the opening and again toward the close, and the weakness was accompanied by rumors that the coming dividend would be passed. No statement could be obtained in regard to the matter, and the disposition of evidently trying to dodge the question rendered the stock a fair mark for attacks of bears all through the day. The impression made upon other leading shares by the movements of two weak stocks, however, was very whight, and few redset sharehald a read for the color sharehald and the stocks showever, was very whight and few redset sharehald and the stocks showever, was very shight and few redset sharehald and the stocks showever, was very a firmer of slight, and few stocks fluctuated over a range of slight, and few stocks fluctuated over a range of more than 1 per cent. Northern Pacific, Union Pacific and Oregon Transcontinental were favorably effected by the news of the day, but Lake Shore was weaker than for some days past, considerable pressure being brought against that stock, but its final change is insignificant. Grangers, as a class, were quite strong, but doubts in regard to the future action by Erle on the question of differential had the effect of rather restricting operations in stocks of trunk lines, and they were comparatively stocks of trunk lines, and they were comparatively stocks of trunk lines, and they were comparatively sluggish all day long. Manhattan was exceptional to other Gould stocks, and scored a handsbme advance late in the day. Missouri Pacific lost 3½ per cent., and Atchison 2½, while Manhattan rose 124, all other changes being for fractions only. Sales aggregated 285,000 shares.

NEW YORK, December 4.—[Special.]—Henry Clews & Co.'s circular says: In response to a better Liverpool than was expected the cotton market be the cotton market opened 1@2 points above yesterday's closing; but there has been nothing of moment in it all day. The fluctuations have been within a range of 2@4 points with extreme duliness relgating nearly all the time. The receipts were very heavy, about 60,000 bales, The receipts were very heavy, about 60,000 bales, and, in view of this, prices have been well held. The closing and opening were practically the same, with feeling quite steady at the end of the day. The activity in the coflee market, which is closely identified with the cotton trade, has diverted attention from the latter for the moment, and the lack of interest may, in a measure, be accounted for in this way. The report in the markets here and in the south are unchanged. Hill, Fentaine & Co.'s crop review is due tomorrow and is almost certain to decrease the estimate of Neill Bros. by actual figures.

JOHN S. ERNEST.

NEW YORK, December 4-Hubbard, Price & Co., NEW YORK, December 4—Hubbard, Price & Co., in their cotton circular to-day, say: Both bulletins and bears seem to be making of the most important inducences bearing upon cotton, the bears using large crop estimates and the bulls opposing them with continued good trade. The market now awaits determination as to which of these two influences is greater, and until that time the market will remain in the present unsatisfactory condition.

Frank Haynes and Tom Johnson, both negroes, bave been working for the East Tennessee and Central railroads for some time past. Their work was at car loading and was given to the road which had the greatest demand for them. Night before last they were loading some live stock, and during the work Johnson struck Haynes with a whip. came very angry and notwinstanding Johnson essention that the lick was accidental awore vengence.

"All right," said Johnson. "I have told you that I did not intend to ity you. But if you want a fight you can bave it."

The men continued to quarrel until a fight ensued, in which Haynes came off first best. Yesterday afternoon both men were in the yards waiting for work, and Johnson walke I up to Haynes, saying:
"You made a quarrel with me about nothing and then struck me with a stick. But just wait until dark and I'll get even with you."

"That suits me, "said Haynes.
Soon after dark the two men met at a stock pen near Mitchell street, and as they came together Haynes drew a pistol and began firing at Johnson. Five shots were fired jest as rapidly as Johnson could pull the trigger and then the noise ceased. With the first shot Johnson started to run, but when the second report came he dropped to the earth. Almost instantly, however, he was upon his feet and feeing again. Again he dropped to the earth and again arose and fied.

The shooting attracted the attention of an effect, who was in the locality. He soon succeeded in stopping Johnson, but Haynes had made good his cease. Johnson was found to have two builet shoulder an I the other through the same arm. He was carried to a drug store where his wounds were dressed and his story recited. An investigation caused Johnson's reclease, Haynes is yet at large.

John Williams, a negro man, dropped dead on Walker street about 10 o'clock last night. Wil-liams was carrying a basket of provisions home and soon after leaving the Nelson street bridge, to piled over on the stdewalk. He was dead before a pedes-trian a block away could teach him.

The Case Was Dismissed.

Bailiff Williams, who was locked up for a Balliff Williams, who was locked up for a few minutes Monday night because of a controversy between him and Chief Connolly, was arraigned in police court yesterday morning. The evidence showed that the bailiff had made the levy, and that he refused to show Chief Connolly his papers. The judge was of the opinion that the chief had no right too interfere, and dismissed the case.

B. E. Goolsby, a young man well known in railway and United States milway mail services will be arraigned in police court this morning. He will be asked to plead to the charge of disorderly conduct and quarreling and B. A. Drogan, Fred DeBlondio and R. H. Carmer will appear as witnesses. Last night Goolsby and Brogan had a dispute in the East Tennessee yard. During the quarrel a platel was drawn, so was a cowhide. The trouble between the parties, however, was averted by persons present and yesterday morning the case was made.

Found Upon the Sidewalk. The phone at police headquarters called the patrol wagon to Peachtree street, corner Fine, le night. An old man was upon the sidewalk in speechless and senseless condition. He was a moved to the city prison, where it was ascertained that he was suffering from a paralytic stroke. He was cared for by the city physician, who pronounce his condition extremely dangerous. The old gen tleman is unknown.

The Story Unsolved.

Wash Baker, the negro painter who died at the stockade day before yesterday, was given a grave yesterday morning. The evidence before the jury of inquest indicating that the negro's death yes of inquest indicating that the negro's death was due to carelessness, created quite a feeling. The superintendent of the stockade denies the charge, and says that he wants an investigation. The entire matter has been turned over to the grand jury. The members of that body are thoroughly exercised over the affair, and say that they will six it to the bottom.

CAUSING LAW CASES.

THE PEOPLE WHO FORGET THEM-SELVES AND GET IN TROUBLE.

One Negro Shoots at Another Five Times-The Connolly-Williams' Case-A Woman

With a Hatchet. Five shots fired in rapid succession in the Central railroad yards last night created quite an excitement between Mitchell and Peters streets and The shooting was caused by a quarrel between two

Frank Haynes and Tom Johnson, both negr have been working for the East Tennessee and Cenhave been working for the last roanessee and extend nationals for some time past. Their work was at earloading and was given to the road which had the greatest demand for them. Night before last they were loading some live stock, and during the work Johnson struck. Haynes with a whip. Haynes because very angry and notwithstanding Johnson's assertion that the lick was accidental swore vengeance.

"All right," said Johnson. "I have told you that I did not intend to hit you. But if you want a fight

"All right," said Johnson. "I have told you that I did not intend to hit you. But if you want a fight you can have it."

The men continued to quarrel until a fight ensued, in which Haynes came off first best. Yesterday aremoon both men were in the yards, waiting for work, and Johnson waike I up to Haynes, saying:

"That autis me, "said Haynes.

Soon after dark the two men met at a stock pen near Mitchell street, and as they came together Haynes drew a pistol and began firing at Johnson. Five shots were fired just as rapidly as Johnson could pull the trigger and then the noise ceased. With the first shot Johnson started to run, but when the second report came he dropped to the earth. Almest instautly, however, he was upon his feet and feeting again. Again he dropped to the earth and again arose and fied.

The shooting attracted the attention of an officer, who was in the locality. He soon succeeded in stopping Johnson was found to have two builet holes through him. One was through his left shoulder an lite other through the same arm. He was carried to a drug store where his wounds were dressed and his story recited. An investigation taused Johnson's release. Haynes is yet at large.

. He Died Suddenly. John Williams, a negro man, dropped dead on Walker street about 10 o'clock last night. Wil-ilams was carrying a basket of provisions home and soon after leaving the Nelson street bridge, to: pled over on the sidewalk. He was dead before a pedes-

The Case Was Dismissed. Bailiff Wililams, who was locked up for a few minutes Monday night because of a controversy few minutes Monday hight because on controversy between him and Chief Connolly, was arraigned in police court yesterday morning. The evidence showed that the bailin had made the levy, and that he refused to show Chief Connolly, his papers. The judge was of the opinion that the chief had no right wo interfere, and dismissed the case.

Will Be Tried Today. Will Be Tried Today.

B. E. Goolsby, a young man well known in railway and United States railway mail services will be arraigned in police court this morning. He will be asked to pleed to the charge of disorderly conduct and quarrelling and D. A. Drogan, Fred presson Last night Goolsby and Drogan had a dispute in the East Tennessee yard. During the quarrel a pistol was drawn, so was a cowhide. The trouble between the parties, however, was averted by persons present and yesterday morning the case was made.

The phone at police headquarters called the patrol wagon to Peachtree street, corner Pine, last night. An old man was upon the sidewalk in a sreechless and senseless condition. He was removed to the city prison, where it was ascertained that he was suffering from a paralytic stroke. He was cared for by the city physician, who prononness his condition extremely dangerous. The old gentleman is unknown

The Story Unsolved. Wash Baker, the negro painter who died at the stockade day before yesterday, was given a grave yesterday morning. The evidence before the grave yesterday morning. The evidence before the jury of inquest indicating that the negro's death was due to carelessness, created quite a feeling. The superintendent of the stockade denies the charge, and says that he wants an investigation. The entire matter has been turned over to the grand jury. The members of that body are thoroughly exercised over the affair, and say that they will sift it to the bottom.

I can say that I have never varied one iota from your directions, and took your Antidote regular from first dose of for morphine, of which deadly drug I was a slave for three years previous to the above date, taking it three times daily. I was becoming such a victim to it that my life was a burthen to me, but am happy to say I am a free man today, and shall ever be thankful to you and your Autidote, and am ready to bear witness to its virtues at any time, and will correspond with any one who may wish to make a trial of your Antidote, for it is just what you say it is, and I do trust and pray that every one whois addicted to the awful habit of morphine may have an opportunity of getting relief in the way I did. THE DIRECT TAX BILL MADE THE REGULAR ORDER FOR

A CONTEST BETWEEN THE PARTIES.

Colonel Oates Londed Down With Riders on the Bill-The Oates Interview in the Constitution.

WASHINGTON, December 5.-[Special.]-The direct tax bill, which was today made a special crear by the house for tomorrow, it seems is certain to become a law, notwithstanding the bitter opposition to it by a minority of the southern democrats. The bill is made a special order tomorrow, Saturday and Monday, with a provision that at 4 o'clock on Monday a vote shall be taken. This is the same bill that caused the two weeks' deadlock last session. There will be A BITTER FIGHT made over it this time, but, as an hour for a vote has been fixed, it will be impossible for its opponents to prevent its passage, they being in the minority, unless it can be weighted down with riders in the shape of amendment. Of Colonel Oates and his followers have already in prepared many of these riders, all of which are popular measures, and measures that have many supporters. He believes that he has some amendments to offer that are so popular the house will not reject them, but when they are attached to the direct tax bill it will be weighted down to such an extent that the house will be compelled to refuse the bill and amendments as a whole. His sole object is either to defeat the bill or pass it and the cotton tax bill together. But the direct tax bill has such a large majority of supportors that it seems almost impossible to defeat it by any other means than filibustering, and that cannot be done, as an hour for taking the vote has been fixed by unanimous consent of the house. Many of the southern men who we among the fillbusterers last session have given up hope of preventing its passage by the ase, but confidently expect the bill to be VETOED BY THE PRESIDENT.

In fact, it is said by many that the president has already intimated his intention of vetoing the bill should it pass. The northern democrats and republicans, however, say Mr. Cleve-land will not dare to veto the bill, should jt pass by the large majority expected. If the direct land tax bill becomes a law, Georgia will have refunded to her $117,982; South Carolina $222,396, Alabama $18,285, and The total amo unded is $17,359,685.

Should the cotton tax bill, which will be offered as an amendment, ever become a law, Georgia will get something over $11,000,000. THE OATES INTERVIEW. In the Associated Press matter from Washington in THE CONSTITUTION of Tuesday, there is a statement from Colonel Oates, of Alabama, that some of the papers have misquoted him on the negro question. Colonel Oates gave it to the press that THE CONSTITUTION had quoted him correctly, while other papers had misquoted, and the press cut that out. The interview with bird in THE CONSTITUTE. TUTION, he repeated, was exactly as it occurred Senator Colquitt and Major Burnes called on the president this morning to persuade him to accept the invitation to the

Augusta exposition and to go next week. Mr. Cleveland promised to give a definite answer tomorrow morning, which would be in the affirmative if he found it possible to arrange his business for an absence of three days. Mr. Barnes says he feels hopeful of an affirmative answer. It is, however, doubtful, with the chances in favor of a negative answer. Mr. A. C. Bruce, of Atlanta, is here examining the plans for the addition to the Atlanta custom house. Mr. George I. Cunningham has been appointed a railway mail clerk between Atlanta and Macon.

THE SENATE'S TARIFF BILL. A Lively Debate on Some Sections of It-The Internal Revenue Question Washington, December 3 .- In the senate,

Mr. Vest offered a resolution continuing the existence of the select committee on the ques-tion touching the meat products of the United States, especially as to its transportation with leave to sit during the session and during the next recess. He said that in the pressure of business it was simply impossible for the committee to continue its labors at the present At the suggestion of Mr. Sherman, the resolution was referred to the committee on contingent expenses. Mr. Plumb offered a resolution (which was agreed upon) instructing the committee on epidemic diseases to inquire as to the causes of the introduction of yellow fever into Florida during the past season; whether the instrumentalities of such introduction are still in force and what legislation, if any, is necessary to prevent a similar or other introduction of yellow yever. yellow yever.

At 12.30 the senate proceeded to the consideration or the tariff bill. Mr. Harris asked Mr. Allison whether the senate committee on finance had reported only one amendment to the house bill.

Mr. Allison—I think one.

Mr. Harris—That is my impression.

Mr. Allison—There is but one amendment to the house bill, in the nature of a "substitute".

Mr. Harris-In order to test the sense of the Mr. Harris—In order to test the sense of the senate as to whether the principle indicated by the house bill which, as I understand it, proposes to reduce revenue by reducing taxation, shall prevail or whether the principle on which the substitute proceeds, that of reducing revenue by (to some extent, at least) increasing taxation, shall prevail; I move to lay the amendment on the table and ask for the yeas and nays.

The motion was rejected—yeas 19, nays 26, a strictly party vote.

The motion was rejected—yeas 19, nays 26, a strictly party vote.

Neas—Messrs Bate. Berry. Backburn. Blodgett, Butler, Cockreil, Coke, Gibson, Gorman, Gry, Harris, Jones of Arkensas, McPherson, Ransem, keagan. Sausbury, Turpie, Vest. Walthall—19.

Nays—Messrs, Aldrich, Allison, Blair, Cameron, Chandler, Dayls, Cullom. Dawes, Dolph, Edmunds. Frye, Hawley, Hiscock, Hoar, Jugalis. Manderson, Mitchell, Morrill, Platt, Flumb, Sabin, Sawyer, Sherman, Spooner, Stockbridge, Tellet—25.

The clerk then proceeded with the reading of the substitute for amendments.

Mr. Vance moved an amendment to the to-bacco section reducing the limit of claims for rebate from $10 to $5. Rejected.

No other amendment was offered to the to-bacco section.

No other amendment was offered to the to-bacco section.

The next subject (commencing at section 3 and ending with section 11) was that of "alcohol in the industrial arts." No amendment was offered, but Mr. Sherman said that he had very grave doubts as to the practicability of applying these sections without encouraging fraud. He believed that the object proposed was a good one, to remove all tax from alcohol used in manufactures, arts or medicine. The sections were very harsh and severe, unnecessarily so, but he did not believe that, with all their harshness and severity, they would be successfully applied and executed. He was willing to see the experiment tried, but he simply wished to enter his caveat. He added that he would reserve the right to offer one or two amendments to some of the details.

Mr. Harris gave notice that he would also have some amendments to offer to the internal revenue sections of the bill.

Mr. Vance offered an amendment removing from all internal revenue statutes all provisions fixing the minimum of penalty and leav-
